A NEW FACILITY FOR THE THEATRE SCHOOL

DePaul's Many Dreams, One Mission $250 million capital campaign, the university's most ambitious campaign ever, was officially announced on 5/22/10. The university surpassed the $250 million goal on 2/15/12, when philanthropist and DePaul alum Richard Driehaus made a commitment of $30 million, designated for the College of Commerce. The campaign has now raised over $318 million, but we will continue to raise funds through June of 2014, to meet goals that will fund areas of need throughout the university, including the Performing Arts Campaign. Of the $33 million Performing Arts Campaign goal, $29,087,929 (88%) has been raised for new facilities and scholarships for The Theatre School and the School of Music.

The new Theatre School facility:

It is a $72 million facility, much of which was funded through the university.

The facility includes a 250 seat thrust theatre, a 100 seat blackbox theatre, rehearsal rooms for all theatres, design studios and labs, elevators, computer labs, box office, faculty & staff offices, even lockers & bathrooms and more!

It is the first time in the school's almost 90 year history that the school is operating in a space designed for it, and with everyone and everything in one place.

On the SW corner of Fullerton and Racine (formerly a parking lot), the facility was designed by the world famous architectural firm of Pelli Clarke Pelli. Groundbreaking was in June 2011. We started moving in in July 2013 and started up full steam ahead Fall 2013-14.

The Merle Reskin Theatre will be renovated and updated. Right now, it's undecided what will happen to the current Theatre School building and Annex.

Fulfilling this dream ensures that the great legacy of the Goodman School of Drama and The Theatre School will not only continue but be strengthened and enhanced.

Notable gifts received so far:
- Goodman alum and long-term Theatre School Board member, Sondra Healy and her husband Denis, have made a naming gift for the 100-seat Blackbox Theatre
- Theatre School patron, Merle Reskin, has made a gift to name the Merle and Harold Reskin lobby
- Kathleen and Gerhard Bette, parents of alum Josef Bette, have made a gift to name the Green Room for the Bette family
- Recently deceased alum and professor Emerita Bella Itkin made a gift to name the rehearsal room
- Lighting Design alum Paul Miller has made a gift to help name the Lighting Lab
- Lighting Design alum Paul Gregory has made a gift to help name the Lighting Lab
- Lighting Design alums Robert Shook and his wife, staff member Leslie Shook, have given a gift to name the Control Room for the thrust theatre.
- Theatre Board Chair Mary Burns and her husband Joseph have made a gift to name the Musical Theatre Studio
- Lincoln Park neighbors Linda Usher and Malcolm Lambe have made a gift to name the Courtyard.

Endowed Scholarships that have been created since the launch of the campaign include:
- The Larry Bundschu and Warren Snoddy Scholarship
- The David and Toni Dunning and Bill and Penny Obenshain Scholarship
- The Lighting Design Scholarship (created from 5 leadership gifts from alums Scott and Samantha Falbe, alum Paul Gregory, alum Paul Miller, alum Robert and his wife Leslie Shook, and Frederick Spaulding)
- The Lois Nettleton Memorial Scholarship (donor: John Bowab)
- The Rhoda Pritzker Scholarship
- The Rev. Charles Shelby Scholarship
- The Joseph Slowik Scholarship (principal donor: alum Scott Ellis).

Go to the DePaul Construction Cam! You can check a Time Lapse View (past 24hrs or from the beginning), and ground plans for the new Theatre School building on the southwest corner of Fullerton and Racine on DePaul's Lincoln Park campus.
“Places, places,” it’s time to take your seat. DePaul University invites you to support The Theatre School Capital Campaign. Your gift of a named seat will give you a permanent place inside The Theatre School’s new home at the corner of Racine and Fullerton.

Be recognized for your support with a plaque bearing your name on one of a limited number of available seats within the 250-seat thrust theatre or the 100-seat flexible theatre in the new performing arts facility at the heart of the Lincoln Park Campus.

Don’t miss this window of opportunity. Make your gift today and become a lasting part of this transformative space that will continue to inspire generations of students and audiences.

For more information visit alumni.depaul.edu/TakeYourSeat.

The Thrust Theatre

The playing space of the thrust theatre is designed with seating on three sides, creating an intimate audience experience. Enjoy the Theatre School productions from your permanent place in the audience, by requesting your seat when purchasing your ticket (subject to availability).

$3,000 gift
Enjoy the best seat in the house, with premiere seating in the first three rows of the theatre. Celebrate The Theatre School with your gift, and a plaque engraved with your name will be permanently affixed to your seat.

$2,000 gift
Be front and center, with prime seating in the center section. Your gift to The Theatre School will be celebrated with your name engraved on a plaque, and permanently affixed to your seat.

$1,000 gift
Don’t miss a thing, with excellent seating in the upper right or left section. A plaque with your name will be permanently affixed to your seat.

Sondra and Denis Healy Theatre

Customized to each performance, the flexible layout of the seats in the Healy Theatre can be rearranged.

$250 gift
Seating arrangements in the flexible theatre are moveable and adaptable for different productions. Though the placement of your chair may shift, your name will be a permanent part of the seat when you give at this level. Your name will also appear on a plaque near the entrance to the Healy Theatre.

The Theatre School Capital Campaign is a major component of DePaul University’s Many Dreams, One Mission campaign. As the most ambitious fundraising effort in the university’s history, the Many Dreams, One Mission Campaign aims to raise $300 million by June 2014, ensuring that future generations can realize their dreams, fulfill their ambitions and serve their communities. For more information visit campaign.depaul.edu.

An alum and his wife have pledged $10 million from their estate to the university, the largest single gift in the institution’s history. It will support student scholarships and a professorship at DePaul's College of Commerce. The donors, a retired graduate of the college and his wife, wish to remain anonymous. The gift helps the university move closer to raising $250 million by 2014.

DePaul's 14 E. Jackson building in downtown Chicago has been officially named the Richard M. and Maggie C. Daley building in honor of the longest serving mayor of the city of Chicago (a “Double Demon” himself having received both his undergraduate and law degrees at DePaul) and his late wife. The former Mayor Daley is currently serving as the honorary chair of DePaul's $250 million capital campaign.

The new 115,000 sq ft Arts & Letters Hall at Kenmore and Belden was officially opened in January 2012. The building provides 41 new classrooms of various sizes and configurations, as well as departmental office space for English and History of Art & Architecture. Numerous student lounge areas and amenity spaces are provided as well.

The worldwide Vincentian Family has launched a microfinance initiative called Zafen.org to enable contributors anywhere in the world to lend or donate to Haitian entrepreneurs as a way of supporting sustainable economic development in the Western Hemisphere's poorest nation. Zafen.org is unique in that contributions are linked in real time to projects that await funding and they go directly to the project(s) you identify; it offers peer-to-project vs. person-to-person relationships encouraging greater sustainability; you can track your loans, watch them return, then re-lend or withdraw online; it uses PayPal for secure, easy and reliable loans/donations; you can donate $50 to send a child to school with supplies for a year and the Vincentians will match donations.

Interested in volunteering and donating your time and expertise to students and other alumni? Join the ASK (Alumni Sharing Knowledge) Volunteer Network of Alumni Relations and Network, a unique career-focused mentor program devoted to helping students and alumni in their professional growth. 10 YEARS AGO: Then US President George W. Bush signed a law on April 1, 2004, that for the first time made it a separate federal crime to harm a fetus during an assault on the mother.

10 YEARS AGO: On April 10, 2004, the White House declassified and released a document sent to then US President George W. Bush before the Sept. 11 attacks that cited recent intelligence of a possible al-Qaida plot to strike inside the US. On April 11th, Bush defended his response to a briefing memo from August 2001 about possible terrorist plots against the US, saying he was “satisfied that some of the matters were being looked into” and that there were no specific threats against New York and Washington.

10 YEARS AGO: A US federal judge allowed a nationwide ban on dietary supplements containing ephedra to take effect on April 12, 2004, turning aside a plea from two manufacturers.

10 YEARS AGO: Arabs expressed outrage at graphic photographs of naked Iraqi prisoners being humiliated by US military police; then US President George W. Bush condemned the mistreatment of prisoners on April 30, 2004, saying, “That’s not the way we do things in America.”

15 YEARS AGO: The US Labor Department reported on April 2, 1999, that the nation’s unemployment rate fell to a 29-year low of 4.2 percent in March 1999.

15 YEARS AGO: The US Justice Department reported on April 11, 1999, that more than a third of the women in state prisons and jails said they were physically or sexually abused as children.

15 YEARS AGO: U.S. District Judge Susan Webber Wright cited then US President Bill Clinton for contempt of court on April 12, 1999, concluding that the president had lied about his relationship with Monica Lewinsky in a deposition in the Paula Jones case.

15 YEARS AGO: The Columbine High School massacre took place near Littleton, CO, on April 20, 1999, as two students shot and killed 12 classmates and one teacher before taking their own lives.

20 YEARS AGO: Former US President Richard Nixon suffered a stroke at his home in Park Ridge, NJ, on April 18, 1994, and was taken to New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center; he died four days later at the age of 81.

20 YEARS AGO: A Los Angeles jury awarded $3.8 million to beaten motorist Rodney King on April 19, 1994.

25 YEARS AGO: Richard M. Daley won his first Chicago mayoral election on April 4, 1989, to a two-year term that completed the term of the late Harold Washington.

25 YEARS AGO: A white female jogger in New York’s Central Park was beaten and raped on April 19, 1989; five black and Hispanic teens were convicted and sent to prison, but their convictions were overturned in 2003 after a serial rapist confessed and DNA evidence tied him to the crime.

35 YEARS AGO: Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini declared Iran an Islamic republic on April 1, 1979.

35 YEARS AGO: Democrat Jane Byrne was elected mayor of Chicago with 82 percent of the vote on April 3, 1979, defeating Republican Wallace Johnson.

40 YEARS AGO: Golda Meir announced her resignation as prime minister of Israel on April 10, 1974.
